Introduction

MITR is a wellness support group composed of faculty and student coordinators, who are committed to promoting a culture of mental wellness and providing essential support to students. Through collaborative efforts with the stakeholders, MITR organises a wide range of events and initiatives to enhance mental health awareness and promote psychosocial well-being on campus. MITR stands by the motto: “No one in the campus should be unattended in emotional distress”.

Message from the Dean of Students

Prof. Sathyanarayana N Gummadi

"At IIT Madras, we believe that academic success must go hand in hand with emotional well-being. MITR embodies this vision by providing a safe space where students can find guidance, understanding, and support. I extend my heartfelt appreciation to the MITR team for their unwavering dedication to promoting mental wellness and fostering a supportive campus environment."

Message from the Wellness Advisor

Prof. Sarith P Sathian

Over the past several years, MITR, as a student-led body at IIT Madras, has played a significant role in empowering students to better recognize, manage, and grow through challenging emotions. Through a range of thoughtful initiatives, MITR volunteers have consistently emphasized that mental health is an integral component of overall well-being. Engaging within our own student community not only supports peers but also fosters meaningful connections, a sense of purpose, and personal growth. By choosing to be part of MITR, each member has committed to being a source of support and understanding for fellow students. I sincerely appreciate the dedication, empathy, and sense of responsibility demonstrated by the MITR team. I am confident that your continued efforts will contribute greatly to building a more positive, safe, and inclusive campus environment.

Message from the Student Advisor

Hiba Fathima

This is my fourth year with Team Mitr, and it has been an amazing ride full of growth, compassion, and meaningful connections. Mitr is not just a support group; it is like family, making sure nobody on campus feels alone. This year,we focused on mental wellness with some really solid programs, fun, creative activities, and training sessions. Thank you to all my amazing core members and the team for their energy and effort in making this a success. Thank you to every student who participated and made our events a success. Together, we are creating a campus that is more positive, safe, and welcoming for everyone.

Resonance and Recovery

- Mr. Anoop Sankar's soul-stirring musical session explored the therapeutic power of melody for stress recovery.
- The venue reached full capacity with attendees eager to experience interactive harmony.
- The feedback was glowing, as participants left feeling a profound sense of calm, rejuvenation, and emotional balance.

5K Marathon

- The campus buzzed with energy during the 5K Marathon, promoting physical fitness and endurance.
- A massive wave of students and faculty gathered to champion an active lifestyle and community spirit.
- The joyful atmosphere boosted morale across the board, leaving everyone energized by the power of collective movement.

Game Time

- Game Time was a high-energy success that tested the strategic thinking and teamwork of a packed house.
- Participants enjoyed the inclusive, spirited environment, sharpening their problem-solving skills under pressure.
- The dynamic setup provided a much-needed break, allowing students to forge new friendships through healthy competition.

IE Cultural Event

- This vibrant showcase celebrated our community's diverse heritage, ensuring that every voice was heard.
- The packed venue reflected an eagerness for cultural exchange through performance and art.
- The heartwarming feedback showed that the event successfully fostered empathy and a deeper connection to the global campus community.
